INSURANCE MEN COME TO FAIR

Prize Agents Are Guests of General Officers This Week.

About twenty agents of the John Hancock Insurance Company of Boston will spend this week visiting the World's Fair as the guests of the general officers of the company. Several of the general agents arrived yesterday and are at the Lindell Hotel, where rooms have been reserved for the entire party of field workers, while the president, secretary and other officers of the company will be at the Hotel Jefferson.

The trip to the World's Fair is in the nature of a prize offered by the company last May, when the various agents were classified and the men entered into competition for the World's Fair trip. More than twenty of them are entitled to the first prize, and the officers of the company to discuss matters informally with the men. A meeting will be held this morning at which medals and badges will be distributed and the program for the week announced. To-morrow evening the officers will entertain the general agents at a banquet, either at the Mercantile Club or the Hotel Jefferson.

CAPTAIN BROLASKI ARRESTED.

Commander of the Corwin H. Spencer Gives Bond.

Captain Harry Brolaski of the steamer Corwin H. Spencer, was arrested yesterday at the request of Assistant Circuit Attorney Hancock. Shortly after he was taken to the Four Courts an information was issued against him, charging larceny in the robbing of passengers on board his boat.

The arrest was the outcome of the meeting of John Sabitt yesterday by agents of the pin game and afterwards grabbing $2, which he was required to show for a promised $300. Brolaski was released on bond.

MUNICIPAL LIBRARY PLANNED BY HOUSE

Bill Introduced at Adjourned Session Initiates Project and Makes Appropriation.

Delegate William A. Block introduced a bill at the adjourned session of the House of Delegates yesterday morning providing for the establishment of a municipal library, and carrying an appropriation of $6,000 for the organization of the library and its maintenance during the remainder of the fiscal year.

The bill also provides for the appointment of a librarian at a salary of $2,400 a year. A library board, to consist of the Mayor, Comptroller, City Counselor, President of the Council and Speakers of the House, is to have supervision of the library.

The primary object of the library is to collect statistics relative to the city and to keep them in serviceable order. The duties of the librarian will be to obtain and keep on file all pamphlets and publications, which may be issued, containing reliable information regarding St. Louis.

Delegate Kinney's World's Fair bill, which provided for the appointment of a commission to consist of certain city officials, for the purpose of negotiating for the purchase by the city of all, or a part of the World's Fair buildings, was defeated by an almost unanimous vote.

A resolution was adopted calling for an explanation from Comptroller Player as to why the Courthouse had not been repaired in compliance with an ordinance which carried an appropriation of $8,000 for that purpose.

It is impossible to repair the Courthouse at present because the Circuit Judges object to the presence of workmen while they are holding sessions. It is probable that the Courthouse repairs will go over until spring or until the judges consent to let the work proceed.

BRIDGE CASE BRIEF FILED.

War Department Receives Document From Attorney General.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The brief of Attorney General Clegg in the St. Louis Merchants' bridge case was received at the War Department today.

Owing to the absence of Secretary Taft, the acting Secretary of War declined to make its contents public. The paper it is understood, is a concise statement of the case and contains about thirty printed pages.

It is understood that the brief of the St. Louis Merchants' Bridge Company's attorneys has been drawn and is now in the mails en route to Washington.

STATE'S BALANCE $1,968,735.

Secretary Cook Paid $12,055 Into Treasury in October.

Jefferson City, Mo., Oct. 31.—The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Indian Territory and Oklahoma today took a decided stand in favor of establishing prohibition in the proposed State to be created of this Territory.

A memorial was adopted and addressed to Congress, asking that the promise made in past treaties with the Indians, on the subject of prohibition, be included in the statehood enabling act.

The report of the Committee on Statistics shows that the conference has made the largest gain during the past year in membership of any conference in the Methodist Episcopal church since its organization.

Early Fireworks.

The giving of the fireworks at the early hour of 6:30 Tuesday evening is an innovation and an experiment. So many have requested an early performance that the Exposition officials and Henry J. Paine have decided to accede to the request, so that those who have the leave town on Tuesday morning will have the pleasure of seeing the fireworks.

As much depends upon the success of establishing prohibition in the proposed State to be created of this Territory, a memorial was adopted and addressed to Congress, asking that the promise made in past treaties with the Indians, on the subject of prohibition, be included in the statehood enabling act.

"CHRIST SHOULD COME TO ST. LOUIS"

Minister Says Jesus Would Attract No Attention if He Had Nothing to Give Away.

MASSONS DON'T WANT CHURCH.

The Reverend F. A. Mayhall Talks of Lack of Interest in Religion—Dr. Macklin Discusses Aristocratic Churches.

The Reverend F. A. Mayhall of the Hamilton Avenue Christian Church, at a meeting of the Evangelical Alliance yesterday afternoon, said that he felt certain that if it were announced that Jesus Christ was to walk through the downtown district of St. Louis no attention would be paid to him at all, unless the people knew he had something to give away.

The Reverend Mr. Mayhall's declaration was made in the discussion of the Reverend W. E. Macklin's charges that the ministers of large cities are taking the churches away from the masses and catering too much to the rich. The Reverend Doctor Macklin is a Christian Church missionary to China.

According to the Reverend Mr. Mayhall, the masses of the people do not want the church, simply because they are not interested in Christ. After making the assertion that the people would pay no attention to Jesus Christ if he were to appear on the downtown streets, Mr. Mayhall branched off into a defense of lawyers.

DEPENDS THE LAWYERS.

Mr. Mayhall took occasion to upbraid the ministers for their denunciation of lawyers. He said that he had studied under some of the most eminent jurists and professors of law, but had never heard them speak slightly of the preacher or church. On the other hand, he declared, he had recently heard lawyers unmercifully scored at a service.

The Reverend Doctor Macklin opened this line of discussion when he said: "Something is radically wrong when a common man cannot find a place to worship."

"I think we are prone to leave him to himself and rather cater to people of influence and social standing. It is indeed a regrettable fact that our churches are abandoning their downtown quarters for more fashionable ones in aristocratic portions of the city."

"The fact of the matter is that ministers pay no attention to the man in common clothes. A man in tattered garments would be out of place in most of our churches, and the chances are that he would be put out should he dare to enter. It might benefit our people if the preacher should occasionally tell them how hard it is for a rich man to enter heaven. Perhaps then they would not all strive to become Andrew Carnegies."

The silence that followed this plain talk was broken by the Reverend Doctor W. E. Macklin, pastor of the Centenary M. E. Church, at Sixteenth and Pine streets, one of the few churches remaining in the downtown district. Doctor Macklin declared that every man creates his own world, and it is hard for him to see what is beyond it.

"If we are willing," he said, "and care to open our eyes, we might then see that the other worlds about us are not exactly just as we first thought them to be."

UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

At the completion of the argument the committee appointed to consider the advisability of holding Union Thanksgiving services at the World's Fair reported a resolution requesting the use of Festival Hall for the service on that day.

The Reverend Doctor J. J. Nicolls of the Second Presbyterian Church, who previously had offered a resolution requesting the World's Fair authorities to arrange for a union service, said that the reason he had taken that position was that the burden of arranging the service should then rest upon the officials. In this manner he said the celebration would be of a national character, and entirely undenominational.

It would also, he said, secure the cooperation of the churches represented by the Alliance, since the occasion was not one for exploiting opinions concerning doctrines and creeds, but rather one on which all who believe in God, should come together to thank him for blessings received.

In this argument Doctor Nicolls was supported by the Reverend Doctors Burnham, McCarty, Dorchester and several other ministers present.

The Reverend Doctor Campbell held a local celebration, but one of a national character and in view of this fact he advised that the regular services be held in the churches in the morning and that the afternoon be devoted to a celebration in Festival Hall, which would be under the direction of the World's Fair officials.

The Reverend Doctor W. J. Williamson, thereupon offered a resolution to the effect that the Alliance would co-operate with the World's Fair in arranging Thanksgiving service and a committee consisting of Doctors Luccock, Williamson and Nicolls was appointed for this purpose.

PROHIBITION FOR NEW STATE.

BOYS CAUSE YOUNG RUSSIAN TO LOSE FINGER ON WIRE.

A. B. Katz Is Induced to Pick Up a Strand of Copper From Trolley—Hand Badly Burned.

As the result of picking up a wire, which some boys had playfully thrown over the overhead trolley, at the corner of Wash and Eighth streets, yesterday afternoon, A. B. Katz, 22 years of age, living at No. 805 Middle street, received burns which resulted in the loss of one of his fingers and the total disfigurement of his left hand.

Katz is a Russian Jew, and has not resided in this country long enough to become accustomed to American ways, so when the boys asked him to pick up the wire, which had been tied to an iron post, creating a strong current, he complied with their request.

When Patrolman Turner reached him, he seemed to have become dazed and was rolling around in the street, which was extremely muddy at the time.

He was taken to the City Hospital, where his injuries were dressed.

WANTS ALGERIA DEPOSITIONS.

Evidence to Be Obtained in Algiers for St. Louis Case.

Depositions will shortly be taken in Algiers, to be used in evidence in the United States Circuit Court in St. Louis. Judge Adams having issued a commission yesterday to Alfred Chappelle, United States Vice Consul at Tunis.

The case is that of Mordecai Zetoun, against the Jerusalem Exhibition Company at the World's Fair, which was filed on July 27. Zetoun brought suit for $2,000, which he claimed was due him as salary and commission. He was general manager of the concession.

In his petition for the depositions to be taken in Algiers, he alleges that M. Bonet, D. Gottlieb and J. Andenard can give evidence in connection with the case, and that he had agreed to have the depositions taken in Algiers, while it was the pleasure of the company before coming to this country.

United States Court officials say this is the first time a commission ever has been issued in St. Louis for depositions to be taken in Algiers.
